READY TO GIVE 50 LECTURES.

Committee on Consumption Looking for Audiences to Instruct.

The Associated Charities' committee on the prevention of consumption has arranged for fifty or more lectures to whites and negroes during the winter. The lectures will be of an educational nature on the subject to which the ommittee is giving its time, and will be given in churches, halls, or private places, with or without stereopticon views, wherever audiences can be se-

The committee is particularly desirous of placing its work before the people of the community through the churches in ten-minute talks in connection with the Sunday morning or Sunday evening services. Detailed arrangements can be made by addressing the secretary of the committee, Wallace Hatch, Ouray Building, Eighth and G streets northwest.

The report of the finance committee showed that greater attention must be given to the raising of funds. Contributions are acknowledged as
